Private Club in Southwestern Colorado Named #2 Top Golf Course Community in the U.S., #1 in the State of Colorado

MONTROSE, Colo. (October 27, 2008) — Cornerstone Colorado, a private residential community located between Montrose and Telluride in southwestern Colorado, is proud to announce that it has been ranked the #2 golf course community in the United States and #1 in the state of Colorado, in Golfweek magazine's "Best New Golf Courses" list. The issue is currently on newsstands. The new Greg Norman-designed course at Cornerstone was unveiled in July 2008 and features a remarkably diverse combination of holes that showcases a number of Norman's trademarks. The 7,945, par-72 course provides stunning views of the San Juan and West Elk mountains and has been deemed "the best mountain golf course in the world" by Norman.

Each community featured on the “Best New Golf Course” list provides superb golf, luxury residences, an extraordinary location and a breadth of lifestyle opportunities. Editors at Golfweek tout Norman’s well known, “least disturbance” design philosophy, which curtails massive earth movement, reduces large-scale clearing and takes full advantage of the natural facets of the landscape. The course, which covers more than 300-acres, is designed to both challenge and reward players of every level, providing all golfers the opportunity to enjoy and excel at their game.

“We are honored to be recognized by Golfweek magazine, a true authority in the golf world,” said Mark Wood, Director of Golf at Cornerstone. “Greg Norman has created a course offering an unmatched playing experience. He has given Members not only one of the most beautiful courses to play in the United States, but also one of the most ecologically sound.”

In addition to Cornerstone’s 20+-acre practice facility, Members also have access to the finest golf professionals and staff. Mark Wood has consistently been ranked one of the top 50 instructors in the country for the past 10 years. Kathy Hart-Wood, former LPGA touring pro and also a celebrated top 50 instructor as named by Golf for Women, is Director of Women’s Golf. This summer, Cornerstone also celebrated the opening of its Clubhouse, which includes a casual bar and grill, outdoor dining, and Village Mercantile featuring a golf pro shop and outfitters’ headquarters.
