

CORNERSTONE COLORADO RANKED IN THE TOP 25 BY TRAVEL + LEISURE GOLF

Private Club in Southwestern Colorado Featured in January/February Issue's America's Top 100 Golf Communities

MONTROSE, Colo. (January 14, 2009) — Cornerstone Colorado, a private residential community located between Montrose and Telluride in southwestern Colorado, is proud to announce that it has been ranked in the top 25 of Travel + Leisure Golf's “Top 100 Golf Communities” list. The issue is currently on newsstands. The new Greg Norman-designed course at Cornerstone, dedicated in 2008, showcases a number of Norman’s design trademarks and is an unmatched playing experience for beginners and expert golfers alike. The 7,945-yard, par-72 course provides stunning views of the San Juan and West Elk mountains and has been deemed “the best mountain golf course in the world” by Norman.

“We are honored to be recognized by Travel + Leisure Golf and named one of the Top 25 golf communities in America,” said Sean Tannehill, Club Manager at Cornerstone. “The Cornerstone team has worked diligently to create a community that exudes Pioneer Hospitality – a place where people can feel both relaxed and invigorated and where the level of service and commitment is unrivaled.” (continued)
